Decadent confection

Some of the finest and most elegant chocolates just crossed our desk the other day from the young John Kelly Chocolates company in California. Simply scrumptious. The company packages truffle fudge in 8-ounce and 2-ounce bars that are so rich you have to share them. Try gift boxes in all sizes, including the 12-piece assortment for $41. Order at johnkellychocolates.com, or find them at Bottle King's Vineyard Market, Ramsey and Morris Plains, and Gary's Wine & Marketplace, Bernardsville.

Chocolate delights

It was a tough job but some of my co-workers and I decided to take the plunge and taste-test John Kelly Chocolates. We are still on chocolate overload and wallowing in the decadence of these intensely chocolate chocolates.

It got a resounding two thumbs up from the tasters.

Around only since 2005, this luxury truffle fudge is available in 12 flavors including caramel, mint, cappuccino, chocolate with nuts and others.

Prices start at $7.25 for one 2-ounce Truffle Fudge Bar.
