

THE NIBBLE™

Top Pick Of The Week

Great Food Finds™

November 28, 2006

Two-ounce bars of John Kelly fudge are a divine daily treat (you can split them with a friend).

Oh, Fudge!

Fudge can be a paradox: a candy with such promise yet so often overdone and cloying...a disappointing temptress. Yet, we forget the bad recipes and ingredients; and the next time a fudge beckons we buy, often with the same result. Disappointment ended the moment we tasted the fudge from John Kelly Chocolates, a truly fine confection in ten flavors. All natural, each bite has a long finish—not of sugar, but of top-quality chocolate, as it should be. The fudge comes in two versions, one enrobed in semisweet chocolate, one unadorned. Even in the extra cloak of chocolate, John Kelly's fudge is aces, balanced to perfection. Add it to your gift list, and be sure to put yourself on the list.

WHAT IT IS: Classic fudge made of top-quality ingredients, also certified kosher.

WHY IT'S DIFFERENT: Ten flavors, with and without nuts, in regular or "coated"—enrobed in semisweet chocolate (we love it!). There are large logs to "slice your own" and 2-ounce "portion control" pieces.

WHY WE LOVE IT: An impeccable balance of chocolate, sugar and cream: never too sweet or too rich. The naturally-flavored versions are impeccably rendered. All fudge should be like this! The 10-flavor sampler is a fudge-lover's paradise.

WHERE TO BUY IT: JohnKellyChocolates.com.